Lyrics – Crescent Moon (Ramadan Edition)

By: Hind Marai

As my iman grows stronger, I will be wiser
They'll call me freedom, just like the crescent moon

As my iman grows stronger, I will be wiser
They'll call me freedom, just like the crescent moon
And then it just shines, and then it just shines
And then it just shines, oh

It's Ramadan, it's time to fast
From dawn I'll last, the whole day past
Time for worship, prayer all night
It's filled with light, this month of fast

In the beginning, my stomach rumbles
But throughout the day, I'm striving
Reading Quran, it can be sweet
Reap the reward, hasanaat, repeat

Shaytaan is struggling, can't make us sin
But we panicking, soon he'll be free
So we graciously give and zakat we pay
Won't be lead astray, but for now we say

As my iman grows stronger, I will be wiser
They'll call me freedom, just like the crescent moon
And then it just shines, and then it just shines
And then it just shines, oh

So little time, doubling deeds
Sharing our blessings, others we feed
I heard them say 'Islam is the way'
'Islam is the answer' that's what they say

During this blessed month, we are achievers
We fast for Allah, then he rewards us
No food or drink for us, not here to impress

'Cause we just be praising like true believers

And shaytaan is struggling, can't make us sin
But we panicking, soon he'll be free
So we graciously give and zakat we pay
Won't be led astray, but for now we say
As my iman grows stronger, I will be wiser
They'll call me freedom, just like the crescent moon
And then it just shines, and then it just shines
And then it just shines, and then it just

As my iman grows stronger, I will be wiser
They'll call me freedom, just like the crescent moon
And then it just shines, and then it just shines
And then it just shines, and then it just
And then it just

And everybody will be fasting now,
And you and I will be fasting now,
And we all will be fasting now

As my iman grows stronger, I will be wiser
They'll call me freedom, just like the crescent moon
And then it just shines, and then it just shines
And then it just shines, and then it just

As my iman grows stronger, I will be wiser
They'll call me freedom, just like the crescent moon
And then it just shines, and then it just shines
And then it just shines, oh

When my iman grows, when my iman grows
I will be wiser, just like the crescent moon
Just like the crescent moon, just like the crescent moon
Moon, moon, just like the crescent moon
